Academic Integrity

The College is committed to the principles of academic integrity in all aspects of College life. Furthermore, the College expects its students to do their own, original work, except when collaboration on projects is directed by faculty as part of the course or specific assignment. Acts of academic dishonesty are viewed by the College as a serious offense requiring an appropriate disciplinary response.

Acts of academic dishonesty include, but are not limited to: plagiarism, cheating, misrepresentation, and fabrication. Students who commit any acts of academic dishonesty are subject to the penalties and sanctions agreed upon by College faculty and administration.

Procedures for addressing acts of academic dishonesty will be published in the Student Handbook.
