Salary Procedure – Adjunct Faculty Institute Compensation

RVC Administrative Procedure (3:40.020)

The Adjunct Faculty Institute was developed to ensure that Rock Valley College part-time faculty are provided the tools and resources they need for effective instruction. After researching similar programs at various colleges and universities across the United States, the Academy for Teaching and Learning Excellence (ATLE) recommends implementing a per credit hour incentive to recognize adjunct faculty who make a long-term commitment to the College.

Adjunct faculty members who successfully complete the Adjunct Faculty Institute, certified by the ATLE coordinator, shall have their pay increased by $25.00 per credit hour.
